Prof. Sicart is one of the best foreign language teachers I have ever had (and I have taken a fair number of language classes). He has an excellent rapport with the students and goes out of his way to bring in extra materials. His teaching is very clear and thorough.)

This course would have been fairly boring if it had not been for the extra songs/videos/etc.
The work was annoying and busy but it eventually achieved its desired objectives

I felt that this course was helpful in my attempt to learn French, however I felt that the course was a little slow. I felt that more chapters of material could have been covered.

The course was fine, but I could not stand those damn dossiers. The work book would have been fine, but the computer exercises were hassle especially if you did not know how to use it, or your printer could not print out your progress report.

The course was overall okay, but I had never taken a spoken language before so had your years of fatigue in high school so it was somewhat difficult for me to master pronunciation and to think ~~that~~ that the instructor
could have been a bit more accommodating & understanding about this fact.

The policy about Beginning French classes being taught in French is ridiculous. Most of the time, I had no idea what my instructor was saying, and he said he couldn't explain himself in English. I was lost and confused whenever we didn't use the book.

I found the professor to be very good. He was very helpful and willing to accommodate the class' needs. Overall, the professor was great and the course informative. I enjoyed the lessons outside the syllabus.
